

Job Title: Math/Science and Community Life

Classification: Full-time, 10 month position

Department: Academics, Student Life

Reports to: Dean of Students, Academic Dean

Start Date: August 2026

Job Summary

Scattergood Friends School and Farm seeks two engaging community members to join our staff team. Core duties will include a mixture of academic and community life responsibilities. Teaching duties will focus on math and/or science instruction, though other teaching roles are possible if a candidate has experience and interest. Staff members contribute to all aspects of our program and our mission of preparing students to scatter good wherever they go.

Possible Teaching Responsibilities

- Math
- Chemistry
- Computer Science
- Health and Wellness
- Art
- Physical Education

Possible Community Life Responsibilities

- Student Advisor
- Residential Life Staff
- Community Service Coordinator
- Cook
- Student Activities Coordinator
- Restorative Practices Assistant

Other Duties

- Attends regular meetings, including: collection, lunch, staff meeting, community meeting, and meeting for worship
- Serve as a crew leader in our shared work program
- Model the values of Scattergood Friends School

Qualifications and Requirements

- Bachelor's or higher degree
- Ability to design and implement courses that motivate and engage students
- Secondary teaching experience (preferred)
- Proficiency with Google Suite
- Campus residency

Compensation and Benefits

- Salary commensurate with experience
- On-campus housing & utilities
- Meals when school is in session
- Comprehensive health insurance
- Retirement plan
- Tuition remission
- Professional development & mentorship opportunities
- A deep connection to one's work and impact on the world

If interested, submit your cover letter, resume, and three references to jobs@scattergood.org.